

Projects initiated before 2008 and financed by different donors

Projects	Years	2000	2001	2002	2003	2004	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010
Grants from the Government of Great Britain, Japan, UNDP, the Mott Foundation, the Renaissance Foundation and other donors, $ 1,7 mln.		Grant funds were utilized for development, support and implementation of 'Social Investment Fund' joint Project of the World Bank and Ukrainian Government
'Social Investment Fund' Joint Project of the World Bank and Ukrainian Government $ 77 mln. (including loan of the World Bank, contribution of the Government of Ukraine and local communities).			Geography: all regions of Ukraine. 756 microprojects, including 80 aimed at development of innovative social services, were implemented. Several legal and methodological documents on various aspects of social services provision were worked out, 11 standards for certain types of social services were developed, numerous professional trainings for social workers were conducted. More than 1 mln. people benefited from the Project's implementation.
Development of USIF microprojects implementation system to provide innovative social services Grant from the Government of Sweden (SIDA), $ 1,7 mln.			Geography: Khmelnytsk, Lviv and Kharkiv regions. Specialists of social care of institutions, services and organizations gained knowledge necessary for practical everyday work with clients of different categories: children and families, the disabled, the elderly, etc. A number of trainings and consultations were held in Sweden and in Ukraine.
The poorest Ukrainian communities' capacity building Grant of the Government of Japan (JSDF) provided through the World Bank, $ 1,7 mln.			Geography: all regions of Ukraine. Trainings and consultations for rural communities and local authorities were conducted. They were attended by 11 000 persons representing 912 communities from 80 districts of all regions of Ukraine.										